I am Anindi Aida Bilqis, a semester 7 student at UIN Syarif Hidayatullah Jakarta majoring in Journalism. My experience in work is as a freelancer at events, Social Media Specialist, Content Creator, Talent or Model, dan Voice Over Talent. During high school I actively participated in social organizations as well as theater extracurriculars and won several national level competitions. At university I joined DNK TV as an Executive Producer YouTube program Exposiana, I learned a lot about making films, being a producer, talent, and writing scripts (news, short movie, talk shows, social media, etc). So that I am used to working and leading a team, I am also skilled at communicating with new people, because I have joined the public relations, sponsorship and marketing communications divisions several times. I really like photography and videography so I'm active on my personal social media, Instagram and Tiktok.
